Commonwealth Contract Update

TO: All Commonwealth Bargaining Unit 9 Members
FROM: Joe Dorant, President
DATE: January 9, 2012

As you know, the MOSES Commonwealth Collective Bargaining Committee (CCBC) has been meeting with management for six months negotiating over an offer of a new contract proposed by management.

On Thursday, the MOSES CCBC voted to send the proposed contract to all Commonwealth Bargaining Unit 9 members for ratification. On Friday evening at 5:00 p.m. the Commonwealth's Human Resources Department (HRD) representative, Matt Hale, Assistant Director of Employee Relations, myself and CCBC Chairs Tom Natario and Alex Smigliani signed a tentative agreement.

In the near future, all Commonwealth Bargaining Unit 9 members will be sent a packet of information for the ratification vote which will include:

- 1) The tentative agreement of the proposed contract Click for MOU
- 2) A memorandum from the CCBC summarizing the changes that the proposed contract would have on the existing contract Click for Summary
- 3) Ratification vote: date; time(s); address/location of polling places
- 4) A ballot

Check the MOSES website later this week for more detailed information as well as a list of Brown Bag Informational Meeting dates, times and locations. In addition, there will be a discussion of the proposed agreement at the membership meeting tomorrow evening, Tuesday, January 10, 2012 at the Stoneforge Restaurant, 90 Paramount Drive, Raynham, MA at 7:00 p.m.
